The Guadalupe A. Reyes Fiesta del Sol Scholarship Program has celebrated over a decade of awarding scholarships to students from the Southwest side of the city and beyond. The Scholarship Program offers an opportunity for students to receive $1500 for their college expenses, but more than that, in addition PNCC strives to offer students an opportunity to exercise leadership skills, and learn relationship building and teamwork, by participating in the Fiesta Sol planning.

The University Round Table (URT) is comprised of representatives of institutions of post-secondary education and college-access advocates located in the Chicago metropolitan area and in Illinois. Its mission is to provide necessary resources for underrepresented students with a focus on successful recruitment, college access and affordability, retention, and college completion.

The University Round Table encourages first time college students and OR undergraduates to apply for this 2017/18 school year scholarship regardless of their immigration status.
